Synopsis:

The quirky angel, Arebella, falls from heaven and gets trapped on a Namibian farm, stuck up a tree. All she wants is to get back home, but she doesn't own the power to do it herself. Her only connection to heaven is La Guardia, a guardian angel, who tries to help her.

When Jan, a widower, and the owner of the game farm, comes across Arebella, he doesn't know what to make of this strange, winged woman. His focus is on his farm and she's not someone he needs in his life right now. However, with the insistence of his lovingly nosy, elderly neighbors, he hesitantly allows Arebella into his world, and she soon falls for the handsome human.

Then, the demon, Salvatore, who desires to capture angels' divinity, locates her. Can this human and this angel find a way to be together? Perhaps, for now, heaven will have to wait...

Characters breakdown:

Arabella: She is a young angel that falls out of favour in Heaven for disobeying rules. Her Guardian Angel tries to guide her, but her stubbornness prevents her to listen and learn. Arabella is a beautiful firebrand with a feisty personality but suspicious of Humans and their behaviour.

Jan van Aarde: In his late thirties, Jan is a diligent wildlife conservationist that owns his own wildlife reserve. The will to love died with his wife, and he has no time for any romantic relationships. He is a loner and distant, but still cares for his inner circle people. Arabella takes him on a journey of self-discovery and opens his thoughts and heart.

Salvatore: As a "fallen angel" this business man catches wayward angels that enter Earth's domain. He hates Heaven and is therefore a direct enemy of Arabella that will do anything to destroy her and the fulfilment of Heaven's plans.
